

License Agreement

Scope of This Agreement

This License Agreement applies to every eligible digital product purchased or otherwise lawfully obtained directly from Analog Captures. By downloading, installing, opening, copying or using any covered product, you agree to the terms below.

If a product is distributed with a separate written license, the separate license will apply only where it expressly replaces or modifies this agreement.

Products Covered by This License

This license applies to all files and materials supplied as part of Analog Captures products, including:

- NAM Captures and NAM Profiles
- Impulse Responses (IR)
- Presets
- Cabinet Captures
- DI Captures
- Merged Captures
- Tone Variations
- Complete Tone Packs
- Documentation and other included digital files

The exact files included in each purchase are defined by the corresponding product description or order information.

License Grant

Personal License

The purchase grants one (1) non-exclusive, non-transferable license to the purchaser for personal and professional use, subject to all restrictions in this agreement.

The license owner may install and use the files on multiple devices personally owned or controlled by the license owner. The license may not be transferred to another person, company, account or organization.

Commercial Use

The covered products may be used royalty-free as part of original creative work, including:

- Studio recording
- Live performances
- Session work
- Commercial music production
- Streaming and online content
- YouTube and other video platforms
- Film and television
- Advertising
- Games, podcasts and audiovisual productions

No additional royalty payments to Analog Captures are required for music, recordings, performances or audiovisual productions created using the products in accordance with this license.

Restrictions

The purchaser may NOT, whether free or paid:

- Sell or resell the original files
- Redistribute, share or provide copies to third parties
- Upload, mirror or publish the files on websites, forums, file-sharing services or public cloud libraries
- Publish or provide direct download links
- Rent, lease, lend, exchange or sub-license the files
- Transfer the license, purchase or user access to another person or organization
- Modify the files and redistribute the modified versions
- Include the files, in whole or in part, inside another commercial or free product
- Use the files as source material for a competing capture, profile, preset or impulse-response library
- Circumvent access controls or make the files available through shared accounts

These restrictions apply worldwide and remain in effect regardless of whether distribution is commercial, promotional, educational or free of charge.

Intellectual Property

All covered products, files, documentation, names, designs and associated materials remain the exclusive intellectual property of Analog Captures or their respective rights holders.

The purchase transfers only the limited right to use the files under this license. No ownership, copyright, trademark or other intellectual-property right is transferred to the purchaser.

Reverse Engineering

Reverse engineering, extraction, cloning, re-capturing, conversion, reconstruction or reproduction of Analog Captures products for redistribution, commercial distribution or the creation of competing products is strictly prohibited.

Copyright

All covered products are protected under applicable national and international copyright laws and treaties, including but not limited to:

- Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works
- WIPO Copyright Treaty
- Applicable international and local copyright laws

Unauthorized copying or distribution may result in account termination and civil or criminal penalties where applicable.

Disclaimer

Results may vary according to the user's equipment, software, configuration, performance and production environment. Analog Captures does not guarantee identical results across every setup or compatibility with every device, application or platform unless compatibility is explicitly stated.

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the products are supplied as-is. Analog Captures is not responsible for indirect, incidental or consequential loss arising from unauthorized use, incompatibility or misuse of the files.

Updates

Product updates, revisions or replacement files may be released at the sole discretion of Analog Captures. Availability of future updates is not guaranteed unless explicitly stated at the time of purchase.

Support

If you encounter an installation, download or access issue, please contact Analog Captures and include:
